Interim Executive Director Named at Little Rock Airport

Deputy Executive Director to serve as governing body conducts nationwide search

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (June 3, 2019) Little Rock Municipal Airport Commission, the governing body of Bill and Hillary Clinton National Airport, has named Bryan K. Malinowski, C.M. as Interim Executive Director. Malinowski, 48, was appointed on May 31 following the resignation of Ronald F. Mathieu, C.M. who has been hired as president and CEO of Birmingham-Shuttlesworth International Airport.

Malinowski has 27 years of airport leadership experience. He joined Clinton National Airport in 2008 as Deputy Executive Director. Malinowski has held leadership roles with Fort Lauderdale-Hollywood International Airport, El Paso International Airport and Lehigh Valley International Airport.

Malinowski earned a Bachelor of Science in Aviation Management from the Florida Institute of Technology. He is a Certified Member of the American Association of Airport Executives, and is a certified flight instructor with instrument and multi-engine ratings.

This summer, the airport commission plans to begin a nationwide search for a permanent leader of Arkansas's largest airport, which had 1,017,004 enplanements in 2018.
